

You must immediately delay this decision to the indefinite future. You must release the complete and full text of the proposed changes for the public review. you must hold many more public hearings on these issues. Ultimatley, you must not permit greater media consolidation-instead you must encourage greater diversity of ownership and educe, not increae, corporate power and control.